- The provisional ballots for seven individuals with DMV mix-ups between their residence address and mailing address. Ms. Kellom moved to accept the General Registrar's recommendation, Mr. Powers seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.
- The provisional ballots for one individual who was shown as already checked in on the pollbook. Ms. Kellom moved to accept the General Registrar's recommendation, Mr. Powers seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.
- The provisional ballot for one individual who voted provisionally due to a voter registration office administrative error. Ms. Kellom moved to accept the General Registrar's recommendation, Mr. Powers seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

The General Registrar recommended that the following provisional ballots be disqualified and not counted:

- The provisional ballots for eight individuals who did not present the required copy of their photo identification by noon on November 8. Mr. Powers moved to accept the General Registrar's recommendation, Ms. Kellom seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.
- The provisional ballots for four individuals who registered after the deadline. Mr. Powers moved to accept the General Registrar's recommendation, Ms. Kellom seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.
- The provisional ballots for two individuals who submitted incomplete voter registration applications prior to the deadline. Mr. Powers moved to accept the General Registrar's recommendation, Ms. Kellom seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.
- The provisional ballot for one individual who moved out of state. Mr. Powers moved to accept the General Registrar's recommendation, Ms. Kellom seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.
- The provisional ballots for one individual whose registration was cancelled under provisions in the National Voter Rights Act (NVRA) requiring cancellation of "inactive" voters when they fail to confirm their addresses within a specified number of years. Mr. Powers moved to accept the General Registrar's recommendation, Ms. Kellom seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

- The provisional ballots for three individuals who don't live in Alexandria and don't claim to live here. Mr. Powers moved to accept the General Registrar's recommendation, Ms. Kellom seconded, and it passed unanimously.
- The provisional ballots for seven individuals who were in the wrong precinct and did not go to the precinct where they were eligible to vote. Mr. Powers moved to accept the General Registrar's recommendation, Ms. Kellom seconded, and it passed unanimously.
- The provisional ballot for four individuals who said "No" to voter registration (or no response) at the DMV. Mr. Powers moved to accept the General Registrar's recommendation, Ms. Kellom seconded, and it passed unanimously.
- The provisional ballots for five individuals who were not registered in the precinct and for whom no evidence of registration could be found. Mr. Powers moved to accept the General Registrar's recommendation, Ms. Kellom seconded, and it passed unanimously.
- The provisional ballots for six individuals who presented no evidence of registration in the precinct but might still have been eligible to vote in their old precinct or locality. Mr. Powers moved to accept the General Registrar's recommendation, Ms. Kellom seconded, and it passed unanimously.

Upon discussion, Ms. Kellom moved to count the House of Delegates and Clerk of Court races for two absentee by mail voters who were accidentally issued a ballot for the incorrect State Senate district and were mailed replacement ballots with the correct State Senate district but returned the incorrect ballot. Mr. Powers seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

In total, the Board voted to count 47 provisional ballots and reject 41 provisional ballots.

After the provisional ballots were counted and the results were recorded, staff used this information to update the election results and produce abstracts for the election. The Board signed the abstracts and related paperwork.

At 4:38 p.m., Mr. Powers moved to adjourn the Board Meeting. Ms. Kellom seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.
